Rx / Vet Diet migration reference for leader-first cascade planning

Use this as a teaching example for XL changes involving role movement, staffing alignment, pay/schedule implications, leader-first sequencing, and direct 1:1 conversations.

Why this routes to XL

- Impacts roles, reporting alignment, staffing, schedules, and pay considerations.
- Requires HR sensitivity, confidentiality, and direct conversations before broad awareness.
- Needs leader talking points, Team Member FAQs, rosters, 1:1 guidance, escalation paths, and careful sequencing.
- Could create speculation, fairness concerns, or trust risk if the cascade is wrong.

Core change summary

Element	Example pattern
What is changing	A targeted group of Rx and Vet Diet Agents and Team Managers transition to Core/Emerging Programs alignment.
Why it matters	The transition supports operational alignment based on shifts in expected customer demand and workflow efficiencies.
Who is directly impacted	Transferring Team Managers and Agents first; then their current leaders, receiving leaders, and broader teams.
What must come first	Leader notification, direct 1:1 conversations, talking points, FAQs, and support paths before broad awareness.
Broader awareness	Only after directly impacted Team Members have been informed.

Cascade pattern

Sequence	Audience	Vehicle	Purpose
1	Transferring Team Managers	1:1s led by Ops Manager, supported by AD/Director	Directly notify impacted leaders first.
2	Receiving Operations leaders	Leader huddle	Prepare the receiving organization.
3	Team Managers with impacted Agents	Huddle + follow-up resources	Prepare leaders for direct conversations.
4	Transferring Agents	1:1s led by Team Managers	Directly communicate individual impact.
5	Transferring Agents	Follow-up email with details and FAQ	Provide a written reference after the conversation.
6	Broader audience	Pupdate or broad update	Provide awareness after

Sequence	Audience	Vehicle	Purpose
			direct notifications are complete.

GPT output expectations for similar changes

- Recommend XL path and executive/HR-guided governance.
- Flag HR/legal review, confidentiality, leader readiness, direct conversation needs, and broader-channel sequencing.
- Do not recommend broad or narrative-amplifying communication before directly impacted people are informed.
- Include 1:1 talking points, leader FAQ, Team Member FAQ, escalation path, and stabilization support.
